The All Island School Choir

Competition 2010 organised by Co-operation Ireland

in association with  TITANIC
QUARTER & RTÉ

The Event

- The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 will take place during the Autumn 2010 school term.
- All second level schools in the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland are encouraged to participate.
- This document provides promotional information about the competition and how you apply. Please read carefully.
- Application forms will be available in your schools and should be returned by 31 May to Co-operation Ireland at the address below. Entry forms can also be completed online at www.cooperationireland.org by 31 May 2010.
- Participating schools should record a CD of the school choir singing two contrasting pieces and return four copies of the CD to The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 at the addresses below, before the closing date of 22 Sept 2010. All rules and regulations for the competition can be downloaded from the Co-operation Ireland website from the 30 April 2010.
- All entries will be assessed and graded by a highly regarded judging panel, appointed by RTÉ for the event. No correspondence will be entered into on the rules and regulations by either the judges or Co-operation Ireland. Queries in relation to the competition should be emailed to choir@cooperationireland.org
- Schools will be divided equally between the four regional venues to ensure an equal distribution of numbers for each regional heat.
- The judging panel will select five school choirs to participate in each regional heat of The All Island School Choir Competition 2010.
- The four regional heats will take place in October 2010.
- At the regional events each choir will perform the same two pieces as submitted on the entry CD. The judging panel will select one winner from each of the four regional events.
- Each heat winner will receive a prize of £1,000 and will qualify to participate in The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 Grand Final.
- The Grand Final of The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 will take place in the Waterfront Hall, Belfast on Sunday 14 November 2010.
- For the Grand Final the four school choirs will each perform two new contrasting pieces.
- The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 Champions will be selected live by a judging panel on the night of the Grand Final.
- The winners of The All Island School Choir Competition 2010 will receive an additional prize of £4,000.
- The organisers would like to thank both the Department of Education and Science, Republic of Ireland and the Department of Education, Northern Ireland for their help and support in promoting this event.
