

The Beara Writing Experience

"Sometimes we need to set down our burdens and wait for our souls to catch up."

Before there was stress and pressure, there was Beara. With its homeplace on the Beara Peninsula, The Beara Writing Experience is offering a series of writing retreats that will give you the chance to:

- To retreat from the dailiness of your lives into the atmosphere of peace and tranquillity that is the Beara peninsula
- To enhance your own writing as you study Irish literature, history, and culture and gain inspiration from a landscape whose haunting beauty leads to an enlargement of the mind and heart
- To gain personal insight and experience in rural Irish life and culture

These long-weekend writing retreats will take place at Anam Cara Writer's and Artist's Retreat located near Eyeries in Beara. The retreat schedule for 2010-2011 is:
